Can you feel it?

It's the Magical Mystical whisper of Michigan calling you all back to Midland.

Boy, has it been a couple of hard months, or what? Disappointing at times, challenging also but trust me when I say, I understand and appreciate your dedication to attend. The entire 2022 SHCA National Specialty Team has worked very hard for you and we truly hope you have an awesome time. Please wear your biggest smile and relax and enjoy.

Some new things are planned like Daily Yappy Hour instead of evening hospitality, the collector's blankets with reserved seating and the Daily Dinner Bell Buffets, this convention center prepares their food from scratch, these daily buffets will give you a prelude to the Grand One planned for Saturday Night Awards.

Travel safe and we will all be together soon!

2022 SHCA Junior Handling Seminar

Tim and Megan Terella will host a junior handling clinic on Thursday September 15, 2022 at 3pm. All juniors are welcome to attend with their dogs. The session will provide Hands-on learning, personalized instruction, and conclude with a simulated ring experience. All participants are invited to the SHCA Yappy Hour after the seminar.

2022 SHCA Health Seminars

A quintessential concern for any dog owner and any reputable breeder is a dog's health!

Come learn about spontaneous pneumothorax, which Siberian Huskies are considered the poster child for, and about recently identified Siberian Husky neuropathies. These life threatening diseases will be discussed as well as current research findings.

Continuing Education Seminar

Just a quick note to remind you to join us ringside on Tuesday, September 13 for the continuing education seminar Performance 101 – Preparing to and Running Your Dogs. The seminar will discuss the basics in preparing to run your dog.

For those not able to make it in person, the seminar will be recorded and live streamed on Facebook. Our presenter this year is Iditarod veteran Wayne Curtis.

Last minute guests are more than welcome to attend. Also, there is no fee associated with attending this seminar. Please join us ringside as we look forward to seeing you.
